Primary insurance amount (PIA)

PIA is the Social Security retirement benefit at Full Retirement Age (FRA). It is the sum of three separate percentages of average indexed monthly earnings (AIME). For 2022, the percentages (bend points) are shown below.

|                                  |  |                          |

*Earnings test applies to any benefit (retirement, spousal, survivors, divorced) received before Full Retirement Age. If married, Social Security looks at the wages of the spouse receiving Social Security benefit (not their joint income). Social Security only considers wages earned after you start Social Security. Earnings test is based on earned income only. Dividend, capital gains, rental income, distributions from IRAs and workplace retirement plans, etc. may not be counted as earned income. Severance pay is counted as earned income, unemployment benefits are an entitlement benefit and not counted as earned income. Please contact a qualified tax advisor for more information on earned income.

**Special earnings monthly limit may apply the first calendar year. This limits monthly earnings to $1,630 ($4,330 if turning FRA in 2022) starting in the month Social Security benefit begins and ending in December (or the month you turn FRA if turning FRA in 2022). If earnings exceed $1,630 ($4,330 if turning FRA in 2022) in any remaining month of the calendar year (remaining month until turning FRA if turning FRA in 2022), you won't be entitled to any benefit for that month. In the second year, the SSA applies the annual earnings limit.

Spousal percentages

FRA for spousal benefits is age 66 for anyone born 1943 to 1954. It increases by two months for every year from 1955 to 1959. FRA is age 67 for anyone born 1960+.

Spousal benefits key facts

REQUIREMENTS TO RECEIVE A SPOUSAL BENEFIT

- Must be currently married to your spouse for one year (ten years if divorced)
- Your spouse must be receiving their retirement or disability benefit
- Available even if you didn't work

IF BOTH SPOUSES WORKED

- Generally receive greater of your retirement or spousal benefit (possible exception if born on or before 1/1/1954; see page 8)
- Only one spouse can receive a spousal benefit

SPOUSAL BENEFIT CALCULATION

- Amount is based on your spouse's benefit at their Full Retirement Age (regardless of your spouse's age when your spouse claimed their Social Security benefit)
- Percent is based on your age when you apply

CLAIMING BEFORE FULL RETIREMENT AGE

- If your spouse claims before/after FRA it doesn't impact how much you receive as a spousal benefit
- If you claim before FRA, it reduces the total amount you receive after your spouse applies

Survivors percentages

FRA for survivors benefits is age 66 for anyone born 1945 to 1956. It increases by two months for every year from 1957 to 1961. FRA is age 67 for anyone born 1962+.

Survivors benefits key facts

REQUIREMENTS TO RECEIVE A SURVIVORS BENEFIT

- Must be married to your spouse for nine months (ten years if divorced)
- Must be age 60 or older (50 if you are disabled) or have a “child-in-care” (see page 19)

SURVIVORS BENEFIT CALCULATION

- Amount is based on benefit deceased spouse was receiving (see page 9 for more information)
- Percent is based on how old you are when you apply for the survivors benefit

EVENTS BEFORE FULL RETIREMENT AGE

- If you claimed your retirement or spousal benefit before FRA, you are still eligible for the maximum survivors benefit
- If the deceased passed away before FRA without claiming, the survivors benefit is based on what the deceased would have received at their FRA
- If widow is between ages 60 and 70, widow may be eligible to start with one benefit and switch to the other (see page 9)
- The earnings test affects any benefit received before FRA

*If the deceased claimed before their FRA, there is a special calculation for the surviving spouse called the widow(er) limit. See page 9.

Source: Social Security Administration

Length-of-marriage requirements

SPOUSAL BENEFIT

One continuous year just before filing for benefits

SURVIVORS BENEFIT

At least the nine months before the worker dies

DIVORCED BENEFIT

10 continuous years

CHILD-IN-CARE BENEFIT

No length-of-marriage requirements

Key facts comparison (for married couples and divorcees)

MAXIMUM PERCENT

Spousal: 50% of your spouse's FRA benefit
Survivors: 100% of the deceased's benefit*

AMOUNT BASED ON

Spousal: Your spouse's FRA benefit
Survivors: Your spouse's benefit at death (if they died before claiming; based on the greater of their FRA benefit or what they would have been entitled to at death)

IF YOU CLAIM YOUR RETIREMENT BENEFIT BEFORE FRA**

Spousal: reduces your spousal and retirement benefit
Survivors: no impact; percent is based on your age when you claim the survivors benefit

IF YOUR SPOUSE CLAIMS THEIR BENEFIT BEFORE FRA

Spousal: no impact because the spousal benefit is based on your spouse's FRA benefit
Survivors: reduces survivors benefit because survivors benefit is based on when the deceased claimed

*See page 9 if deceased claimed before FRA.

** Earnings test applies to any benefit received before Full Retirement Age.

Coordinating spousal and retirement benefits

| HAS YOUR SPOUSE APPLIED FOR THEIR RETIREMENT BENEFIT? |   |  |
|---|---|--|
| YES   | You receive the greater of your retirement or the spousal benefit                                   | Exception: If you were born on or before 1/1/1954, you may be eligible for restricted application. |
| NO  | Start with your retirement benefitWhen your spouse applies: May step up to spousal (if greater) | If you receive a reduced retirement benefit, your spousal benefit is also reduced.*                |

* The Social Security Administration (SSA) pays out your retirement benefit first. When your spouse applies, the SSA tops off your current amount with an excess spousal benefit. The excess spousal benefit = (your max spousal) - (your retirement benefit at FRA). The excess spousal benefit is further reduced if you are under FRA when your spouse applies. After your spouse applies, the new total amount = (your current benefit) + (excess spousal benefit).

Requirements to restrict application to spousal benefits only

RESTRICTED APPLICATION OVERVIEW

REQUIREMENTS FOR RESTRICTED APPLICATION

You are born on or before 1/1/1954*

You apply at age 66 or older

Your spouse is receiving retirement or disability benefit**

* If born after January 1, 1954: receive greater of retirement or spousal benefit.

** Restricted application is available even if your spouse is receiving a reduced retirement benefit or born after 1/1/1954. The age 66 and birth date requirements are only for the spouse who wants to elect restricted application.

Deceased claimed before passing*

Deceased claimed before Full Retirement Age (FRA)
Widow(er) limit may apply**

Deceased claimed at or after Full Retirement Age (FRA)
Widow(er) benefit based on amount deceased was receiving at death**

Deceased did not claim before passing

Deceased passed away before Full Retirement Age (FRA)
Widow(er) benefit based on deceased's retirement benefit at FRA**

Deceased passed away at or after Full Retirement Age (FRA)
Widow(er) benefit based on deceased's retirement benefit at FRA plus any credits**

Widow(er) limit

Use this formula if the deceased claimed before FRA

Widow(er) switch-up options

OPTION 1

Start with reduced survivors benefits early as age 60

Switch to retirement benefit at anytime between ages 62 and 70

OPTION 2

Start with reduced retirement benefit as early as age 62

Switch to survivors benefit at any time

* If the deceased was receiving disability benefits, the survivor percent is based on the deceased's disability benefit.

** Adjusted for survivor's age at time of filing for survivors benefit. Earnings limit applies to any benefit received before Full Retirement Age.

Requirements to receive a divorcee benefit

|                             | SPOUSAL  | SURVIVORS   |
|-----------------------------|--|---|
| Minimum age for benefit     | 62 or older  | 60 or older (50 if you are disabled)  |

Earnings limit applies to any benefit received before Full Retirement Age. *Must be divorced for two consecutive years (if divorce was less than two years ago, former spouse needs to apply in order for you to receive a spousal).

Remarriage (applicable for divorcees and widow(er)s)

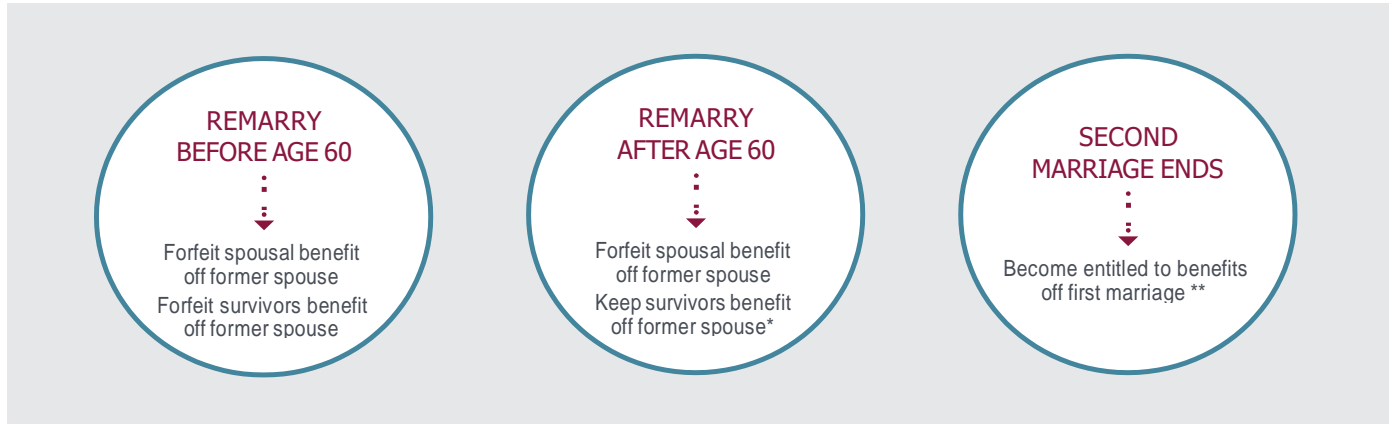

You remarry after 60: forfeit spousal benefit off first spouse, but retain the survivors benefit off them

If your former spouse remarries, it does not affect your divorcee benefits.

If you remarry you usually forfeit benefit off the first marriage.

Two exceptions:

Second marriage ends (through divorce, annulment or death), you may become re-entitled to benefits off the first marriage**

* Receive greater of spousal/survivors benefit of current spouse, your retirement benefit or survivors benefit of former spouse.

** If first marriage ended due to divorce, assumes marriage lasted ten consecutive years before divorce. If first marriage ended due to death of spouse, the marriage must have been in existence for nine months before the death of the spouse.

Windfall Elimination Provision and Government Pension Offset

|   | WINDFALL ELIMINATION PROVISION (WEP)   | GOVERNMENT PENSION OFFSET (GPO)  |

| Social Security coverage | No   | Yes. CSRS annuity computed under same rules as other CSRS retirees. When eligible for Social Security benefits (usually at age 62), CSRS annuity is offset by value of Social Security benefit earned during CSRS Offset service. | Yes. For certain FERS employees who retire and are entitled to immediate annuity before age 62, OPM pays “retiree annuity supplement” that substitutes for Social Security part of FERS. It is paid only until age 62, regardless of when retiree applies for Social Security. |

* WEP: If an annuity based on CSRS service was transferred to FERS, WEP rules may apply to that portion. GPO: Must have elected to transfer to the FERS before 01/01/1988 or during belated transfer period ending 06/30/1988. Employees covered by CSRS and who elected FERS coverage after 06/30/1988 must have five years of federal employment covered by Social Security to be exempt from the offset.

Military and railroad retirement plans

MILITARY

RETIREMENT

Military pension does not affect Social Security benefits. Social Security benefits based on your earnings.

CREDIT FOR MILITARY SERVICE

Since 1957, active duty (including active duty for training) covered under Social Security.

Since 1988, inactive duty covered under Social Security. From 1957 through 2001, special earnings credits granted for periods of active duty or active duty for training. If active duty was after 1967, extra earnings already on your record.

SURVIVORS BENEFITS

Social Security Survivors benefits may affect benefits payable under optional Department of Defense Survivors Benefit Plan. Check with Department of Defense or military retirement advisor for more information.

RAILROAD RETIREMENT BENEFITS

RETIREMENT

Tier 1: Based on earnings an employee acquired under both railroad and Social Security covered employment; uses Social Security formula but with railroad age and service requirements*

Tier 2: Based on railroad earnings; similar in concept to defined benefit plan

SPOUSAL

Tier 1: Spouse receives up to 50% of retiree's Tier 1 basic benefit.**

Tier 2: Spouse receives up to 45% of employee's Tier 2 basic benefit.

SURVIVOR

Tier 1: Survivor receives up to 100% of deceased's Tier 1 benefit.**

Tier 2: Survivor may receive percent of deceased's Tier 2 amount.

* Tier 1 benefits reduced by amount of any Social Security benefit paid on the basis of non-railroad employment. Tier 1 benefits also reduced for any Social Security benefit an employee receives that is based on earnings of their spouse.

** Tier 1 portion of spouse or survivor annuity is reduced for any Social Security benefit, even if Social Security benefit is based on spouse's or survivor's own earnings. Tier 1 portion of spouse or survivor annuity may also be reduced for receipt of federal, state or local government pension based on spouse's or survivor's earnings.

Earnings requirement for disability

In general, to receive disability benefits, you must meet two different earnings tests:

- 1) recent work test
- 2) duration of work test

Recent work test

Test based on your age at the time you became disabled

■ DISABLED BEFORE AGE 24

1.5 years of work required during the three-year period ending with the quarter that disability began

■ DISABLED BETWEEN AGES 24 AND 31

Work required during half the time for period beginning with quarter after turning 21 and ending with quarter that disability began

■ DISABLED AT AGE 31 OR AFTER

Work 5 years out of the 10-year period ending with the quarter that disability began

Source: Social Security Administration.

Duration of work test for disability benefits

Test that you worked long enough under Social Security

Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) versus Supplemental Social Insurance (SSI)

Eligibility for family benefits

QUALIFYING EVENT

- Disablement
- Retirement
- Death

CHILDREN QUALIFICATION

- Unmarried
- Younger than age 18
- Or 18 to 19 years old and a full-time student (no higher than grade 12)
- Or 18 or older and disabled (disability must have started before age 22)

CHILD-IN-CARE SPOUSE / WIDOW(ER) QUALIFICATIONS*

- Caring for child who is under age 16 or disabled
- Benefits end if child-in-care spouse/widow(er) remarries

Maximum family benefits*

|                       | CHILDREN'S BENEFIT   | CHILD-IN-CARE SPOUSAL / WIDOW(ER) BENEFIT                    | FAMILY MAXIMUM            |
|-----------------------|--|--|---------------------------|
| If parent is disabled | Up to 50% of disability benefit                              | Up to 50% of disability benefit                              | 100%–150% of worker's PIA |
| If parent is retired  | Up to 50% of full retirement benefit                         | Up to 50% of full retirement benefit                         | 150%–180% of worker's PIA |
| If parent is deceased | Up to 75% of deceased parent's basic Social Security benefit | Up to 75% of deceased parent's basic Social Security benefit | 150%–180% of worker's PIA |

IF TOTAL AMOUNT PAYABLE TO ALL FAMILY MEMBERS EXCEEDS FAMILY MAXIMUM LIMIT, EACH PERSON'S BENEFIT IS REDUCED PROPORTIONATELY (EXCEPT RETIRED/DISABLED PARENT'S BENEFIT) UNTIL TOTAL EQUALS FAMILY MAXIMUM.

*Earnings test applies to any benefit received before Full Retirement Age. Sources: Social Security Bulletin, Social Security Handbook, Social Security Administration.

Nonqualified Deferred Compensation and Executive Compensation

The chart below describes when the following could be credited as wages to the Social Security earnings record. Contact IRS for information on taxation.

|   | WAGES CREDITED TO SOCIAL SECURITY EARNINGS RECORD   |
|---|---|
| NQ Deferred Comp:No risk of forfeiture                          | Payments to plan are wages for Social Security purposes when services are performed and amount deferred.  |
| NQ Deferred Comp:Risk of forfeiture lapsesat retirement     | All past contributions to plan (or value of the plan), including any accumulated interest, are wages in year of retirement.   |
| NQ Deferred Comp:Risk of forfeiture lapsesbefore retirement | All past contributions to plan (or the value of plan), including any accumulated interest, are wages in the year the point is reached. If employee continues working, future employer contributions are wages as they are paid to plan. |
| Stock bonus plan  | Count the fair market value of the stock if not tax exempt.   |
| Stock option plan   | Count as wages the difference between the fair market value of stock at the time the option is exercised and option price. Count in the period the option was granted.  |
| Net unrealizedappreciation (NUA)                                | The portion that represents NUA and is attributable to employee contributions is viewed as a resource (not as wages).   |

Combined income

WHAT COMBINED INCOME DOES NOT INCLUDE

Roth IRA and Roth 401(k)/403(b)
Inheritance and gifts

Life insurance proceeds
Nontaxable portion of pensions and annuities

Qualified charitable distributions
HSA withdrawals for qualified medical expenses

FICA taxes*

|                 | EMPLOYEE | EMPLOYER | TOTAL    |
|-----------------|----------|----------|----------|
| Social Security | 6.20%    | 6.20%    | 12.40%   |
| Medicare        | 1.45%  | 1.45%  | 2.90%  |
| Total           | 7.65%  | 7.65%  | 15.30% |

† Examples may include municipal bond income, income from savings bonds to pay for higher education and deductions for qualified educational loans. This is not an all-encompassing list.

* FICA and the earned income test are based on gross income before contributions to employer sponsored retirement plans, health insurance plans and other deductions that may reduce federal taxes.

** Does not include Additional Medicare Tax of .9% on earnings over $200,000 ($250,000 for married couples filing jointly).
